Old Business:

The Chairperson discussed the reclassification from Stenographer to Sr. Typist. He will ask the Business Manager if the examination needs to be held since at least one employee is retiring that we are aware of.

The Chairperson also discussed the Public Hearing that was held in August and informed the Commission that the final paperwork has been submitted.

New Business:

The Chairperson informed the Commission that we received correspondence from Police Chief Waldron requesting to appoint one or two part-time officers to a 90 day temporary full time position during a busy time of the upcoming holiday season. We have approved this request in the past and we don't see any reason for not approving his request.

The Chairperson also informed the Commission that we received notification from Chief Waldron that the following candidates passed the Physical Fitness Agility Test in August administered by Colombia County Sheriff and will be attending Police Academy at Columbus Greene CC.

Appearances: Dave Hicks questioned on the dates of upcoming meetings. The Secretary will add the date and time of meetings.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:02 p.m. Next meeting will be held December 6, 2017.
