Old Business:

The Secretary informed the Commission that Civil Service canvassed the Desk Officer list. There were three candidates in which one candidate is in the position as provisional. He needs to be appointed competitively.

Chairperson Kerls informed the Commission that Secretary Sweeney and I met with Mr. Hunter, Interim Superintendent on April 8th. The conversation went well and was agreed upon to give the examinations of Transportation Supervisor to Mr. Pratt and Building and Grounds Supervisor for a new appointment.

Also, the check from the School District was received and is being sent to Commissioner of Accounts Kim Dunn.

New Business:

The Commission also announced additional upcoming Civil Service examinations being held on June 1, 2019. They are Library Clerk (2 provisional employees) and the 911 test to be given to the Desk Officer candidate.

Appearances: None

The meeting was adjourned at 6:20 p.m. Next meeting will be held May 20, 2019.
